Consultants Roundtable Monthly Newsletter - James Perkins, Editor

TABLE TALK FOR AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER 2005

AUGUST 2005

As is the usual custom, no meetings will be held in August.

FIRST MEETING IN SEPTEMBER, 9/12

Our speaker will be Tom Dobson, Owner of Corporate Empowerment and long-time member of Consultants Roundtable. Tom will speak on strategic planning and his One-on-One counseling of company executives about techniques of achieving increased profits.

SECOND MEETING IN SEPTEMBER, 9/26

Discussion of various coaching techniques used by members with executives, managers, and business owners.

COMING IN OCTOBER

Member Fritz Kucklick, topic to be announced.

COMING IN NOVEMBER

David L. Hagen, Consultant in Intellectual Property, on the subject.

LAST MONTH'S (JULY) MEETINGS

Lacking a formal program, both meetings were open discussions about the general field of consulting. The second of the two meetings was directed to the idea that times are changing; so, what lies ahead for the business consulting profession? With that question came the idea that there should be a program devoted to that subject.

IT HAS BEEN SAID.....

The only sense that is common in the long run is the sense of change

- and we all instinctively avoid it.

- E. B. White

To most men, experience is like the stern lights of a ship which illumine only the track it has passed.

- Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Some see private enterprise as a predatory target to be shot, others as a cow to be milked; but few see it as a sturdy horse pulling the wagon.

- Sir Winston Churchill

Corporation: An ingenious device for obtaining individual profit without individual responsibility.

- Ambrose Bierce
